King George VI

1. The Procession of a King

The musical score is for a piece titled "The King is Dead". It is written for six vocal parts and piano accompaniment. The tempo is marked "Longingly, ♩ = 78". The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The score is divided into five measures. The first measure contains a whole rest for all parts. The second measure contains a whole rest for Wallis, Elizabeth II, Elizabeth I/Young George, and the Piano. George VI, King George V, and Edward/Archbishop enter in the second measure with the lyrics "The King is dead". The third measure contains a whole rest for Wallis, Elizabeth II, Elizabeth I/Young George, and the Piano. George VI, King George V, and Edward/Archbishop continue with the lyrics "The King is dead". The fourth measure contains a whole rest for Wallis, Elizabeth II, Elizabeth I/Young George, and the Piano. George VI, King George V, and Edward/Archbishop continue with the lyrics "The King is dead". The fifth measure contains a whole rest for all parts.
